The TAUT sofa is the not-so-distant cousin of the TUX two-seater sofa. It is handsomely upholstered in a dark grey tweed fabric with feather fill back seats and foam and Dacron lower seats. The craftsmanship is impeccable when you look at the stitching and attention to detail, and the legs are done in a sleek brushed stainless steel. Pair this three-seat sofa with the TAUT ottoman that easily moves from side to side to make a sectional of your preference. The extra thin arm detail gives you the maximum seating space you'll need. All pcs join together with heavy duty alligator clips to keep anything from moving once in place.
