The Scales Silver Wall Tile Set would read to the mind as a simple teardrop shape hung alone; when grouped the curvy decorative elements become fish scales—thus the name. Made of composite in a silver leaf finish, these tiles are luminous design elements in any space, and they create a fun gallery wall installation when a number of sets are combined. We also offer the Scales in a glossy white finish. Each of these sets of decorative wall art reflects the ethos that the Phillips Collection personifies: modern organic.
