The Berglund desks lamp has a radical design that bears all the hallmarks the artistic energy of the mid-century modern period. The shade yawns open like a mouth, connected by a brass joint to tube steel frame. This light fixture is crouched like a mantis balancing its large aluminum shade, giving at an energetic, intelligent profile. Fully adjustable, the aluminum shade is painted matte white. Minimalist yet brimming with creativity, the Berglund, inspired by French design, is a shining example of the sophisticated, thoughtful light fixtures of the 20th century.
