Experience the geometric subtlety of Callier. Featuring an intersecting metal nailhead pattern and inset rim, Callier graces the modern bedroom with a full or queen headboard that makes a striking decor statement. Made of soft upholstered linen fabric covering a durable fiberboard and plywood frame, Callier comes solidly constructed with extra wide black-stained wood post legs that fit either full or queen bed frames, and are height adjustable in three mounting positions. This tall headboard ranges from 46 - 54 inches in height, making this dense foam padded headboard a luxurious addition for quality support while reading and relaxing.
