Refresh your bedroom with comfortable sleep and elegant style with the Richart Queen Performance Velvet Platform Bed. A modern twist on traditional design, the queen headboard and sideboards of this platform bed frame come generously padded in dense foam offering comfort and support while relaxing in bed. Resting atop black-stained wood legs with non-marking foot caps, Richart comes upholstered in soft, performance velvet made with stain-resistant polyester fabric. Accented by elegant nailhead trim along the queen headboard, this vintage modern platform bed comes with a sturdy wood slat support system with a reinforced center beam that eliminates the need for a box spring.
